

Laws I would enact in an officially Christian United States Government

Mashmont:

Here are a few beneficial changes that would be made under a Christian United States government. So many problems would vanish overnight with this legislation. Many more would reduce over time. There could be more. These were just a few things I thought of initially. Really common sense stuff, basically a return to 1950s television, an era when families were stronger and children became independent earlier, and societal norms opposed sex outside marriage. A time when top shows were Donna Reed and Leave it to Beaver. A time when it was the norm to attend church, there were the most priests and sisters and Catholic schools in history.

This could be a reality, folks, if enough of us think about it, work towards it, and pray hard. They never thought Roe v Wade would fall, and now look at what is happening, so it CAN be done!

In the Schools:

Christian/Catholic sexual morality taught from the earliest grades:

1. Human lives are of supreme importance. Animals are subordinate,
2. Sex is only permissible through marriage
3. Birth control will not be discussed, nor will condoms be distributed in the schools.
4. Sex education would be replaced with sensible teaching on dating which would include recommendations of:
 - a. Relatively early curfew times
 - b. No passionate kissing prior to marriage
 -c. Emphasis on getting to know the other person
 -d. Duggar-style side hugs, rather than frontal.

Ten Commandments, crosses, and crucifixes may be displayed.

School prayer allowed and encouraged.

Christmas may be celebrated. Christian themed decorations may be used

Christian-themed Christmas plays may be performed.

Racist CRT banned.

Prominent Americans returned to the history books. Lives of the greatest canonized saints would be added in order to inspire children.

Christian schools would be strengthened.

All leftwing/ Marxist propaganda removed from schools and universities. Overt Marxists teachers would either reform or be dismissed.

No alcohol allowed in university dorms which house underaged students. (You might be amazed this is allowed in many or most freshman dorms).

In movies and television:

Nudity is banned. Depictions of sex outside marriage banned. Foul language banned. Graphic physical harm depictions banned. Only nuclear family depictions: Parents married. Depictions of cohabitation banned. Gay sex acts are banned. In media:

No legislation may be pushed by a news outlet that violates Christian moral teaching. Abortion, rioting, extra rights for gays or trans, pitting women against men may not be advocated. Basically any promotion of the issues Marxist atheists use to divide and undermine the country will be banned.

In commerce and law:

Pornography banned.

Abortion mills illegal.

Mexico City Policy made permanent.

Most government domestic programs will be shut down, and a private sharing program would be established where people send funds directly to those designated in need. This would eliminate large piles of money. This will be the topic of another thread. It is based on charity, rather than coercion. It would also remove power from leftwing politicians Government photo and/or fingerprint or retinal ID would be used for all voting. No drop boxes. Only verified mail-in voting. Very limited early voting.

Illegal immigration would be stopped cold. Legal immigration requirements would be relaxed for countries for which they are onerous.

Recreational drugs once again illegalized.
